

Cluster for Sustainable Cities Launch

Prof Steffen Lehmann and
Prof Mark Gaterell

The Cluster for Sustainable Cities was officially launched on the 8th June by Professors Steffen Lehmann and Mark Gaterell. The session was fully booked with attendees from across the University contributing to discussion and networking during lunch. During the session the direction of the cluster was presented under the five following work programmes:

1. Resilient and Engaged Communities
2. Low Carbon Neighbourhoods and Smart Urban Futures
3. City Policy, Legislation, Governance and Finance
4. Sustainable Construction and Integrated Technologies
5. Urban Disaster Resilience

If you would like to know more about the cluster or get involved then please get in touch to be added to the invitation list for any upcoming events and communications:
